

Curriculum Overview: English

Exam Board: AQA

	AUTUMN 1	AUTUMN 2	SPRING 1	SPRING 2	SUMMER 1	SUMMER 2
7	Heroes, Gods and Monsters <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Greek Mythology and the influence it has had throughout history o Traits of characters (Prop's characters) 	Heroes, Gods and Monsters <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Journey of a hero o Narrative perspective o Vocabulary and word classes o Selecting relevant evidence 	Frankenstein <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o What is a villain? (Prop's characters) o Gothic genre o Conventions of a play o Using relevant evidence to support ideas 	Frankenstein <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Man v God(s) o Man v Nature o Vocabulary and word classes 	Dystopian Writing <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Anecdotal narrative structure linking to the 7 basic plots o Prop's characters o Language techniques, word classes, sentence types, using punctuation o Dystopian genre 	The Tempest <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Language analysis (extract) o Plot structure of a play o Dramatic techniques o Conventions of a comedy play o What is a monster? o Context: Gender, treason, colonialism
8	Animal Farm <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Allegory, symbolism, extended metaphor o Trace a theme over a text o Man v Man/ Nature/ Society/ Self/ Environment 	Animal Farm <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Contextual factors: politics Russian Revolution o Vocabulary, word classes o Use relevant evidence to support ideas and link to relevant context 	Conflict Poetry <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Poetic devices o Comparing speakers voice o Man v Man/Nature/ Self o Context: WW1, WW2, conflict over time 	Fantasy Writing <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Genre conventions o Cyclical structure o Prop's characters o Language techniques, word classes, sentence types o Using a range of punctuation 	Lord of the Flies <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Symbolism o Characterisation o Prop's characters o Context: WW2, colonialism o Effect of vocabulary and word choice 	Lord of the Flies <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Use relevant evidence to support ideas and link to relevant context, when exploring character development
9	Civil Rights Poetry <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Poetic devices o Comparisons and links between poems and to relevant context o Rhetoric 	Blood Brothers <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Context: class, family o Dramatic techniques o Introduction to conventions of tragedy genre o Propps characters o Analysis of relationship between characters 	Oliver Twist <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Linear narratives o Prop's characters o Context: class, family, gender, poverty, morals o Effect of writer's choice of language o Victorian period 	Oliver Twist <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Essay writing techniques and structure o Effectively using relevant evidence to interpret writer's intentions and purpose of characters 	Gothic Writing <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Non linear narrative o Gothic conventions, supernatural o Using vocabulary and language techniques for an intended effect o Using a range of punctuation for effect 	Romeo and Juliet <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Tragic flaws o Analysis of language and dramatic techniques o Tracing character and theme development through a text o Context: gender, family, rights, historical
10	Macbeth <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Shakespearean tragedy conventions, tragic hero and flaws o Shakespeare's use of language and dramatic techniques to create meaning and effect o Exam technique 	Macbeth <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Thesis statements o Social and Historical contexts o Links to other writers o Shakespeare's intentions o Speaking and Listening 	Jekyll and Hyde <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Gothic conventions o Context: historical o Stevenson's use of narrative structure and language choice to create meaning and effect 	English Language Paper 1 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Structural techniques for effect o Language techniques for effect o Evaluating a statement o Communicate clearly, effectively and imaginatively 	An Inspector Calls <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Priestley's methods to create meaning and effect o Structure of the play o Context: gender, class, causation, consequence, audience and morality o Exam technique 	English Language Paper 2 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Language techniques for effect o Comparing and synthesising sources o Communicate clearly, effectively and imaginatively
11	Language Paper 2 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Compare writer's viewpoints o Compare writer's methods o Communicate and organise writing, to express a point of view, in a specific form 	Literature Paper 2 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o AIC: Revision and consolidation of, themes, characters, plot o Unseen poetry o Anthology and Unseen: Comparing poems o Exam technique 	Language Paper 1 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Structural techniques for effect o Language techniques for effect o Evaluating a statement o Communicate clearly, effectively and imaginatively 	Literature Paper 1 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Analysing an extract o Making links to wider text o Understanding writer's intentions and methods to create meaning o Making specific contextual links 	Exam preparation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Walking Talking Mocks o Content retrieval o Exam skills practice o Interventions 	Exam preparation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Walking Talking Mocks o Content retrieval o Exam skills practice o Interventions

Curriculum Intent

- The English curriculum at Beacon Hill Academy is first and foremost driven with a love for vocabulary and reading. This enables our learners to leave school with the knowledge and skills to be confident speakers, passionate readers and creative writers; all that they need to be successful adults in a challenging world.
- Our vocabulary-rich curriculum offers all learners, regardless of their background, a wealth of opportunity to read and enjoy suitably demanding texts, take part in robust discussion and create their own fiction and non-fiction text fostering a love for language and Literature.
- From KS3, reading is the key to the curriculum driven by key concepts and big ideas from which learners gain both disciplinary and substantive knowledge. We offer the study of classical literature, modern writing, and diverse texts through our English and Reading for Pleasure curriculum.
- Our DAT SMART curriculum is carefully sequenced with knowledge that grows incrementally in challenge each year. Learners are given regular opportunities to assess the knowledge acquisition and skills interleaved within the curriculum.
- Oracy skills are an important part of our implementation as we believe that if learners can express their opinion, they are more able to write it down. Our aim is for learners to become well-rounded individuals who have developed the skills of communication through oracy.
- Regular Assessment for Learning opportunities are embedded into the curriculum to give learners chance to reflect on their own learning, develop metacognitive strategies and become self-checkers making constant progress. This relies on the 'I do, we do, you do' strategy to reduce cognitive overload.
- A focus on vocabulary and substantive and disciplinary knowledge will be assessed at KS3 using 'define, know, do' assessments with KS4 assessments mirroring GCSE style assessments.

Curriculum Implementation

- Throughout the curriculum, learners develop knowledge and skills through interleaving literary study, spoken language and composition of fiction and non-fiction.
- All lessons begin with a recall and retrieval 'Do Now Activity' that is responsive to prior learning.
- English staff use explicit and implicit vocabulary instruction, such as using the Fruyer model and glossaries for learners to develop their understanding of words.
- Teachers of English at Beacon Hill Academy use 20% adaptation of the SMART curriculum developed by the Trust, to differentiate and personalise the lessons.
- Through Quality First Teaching, staff use scaffolding strategies and live models scaled to the appropriate level/challenge needed for learners. Teachers will articulate their cognitive processes during live models preferably using a visualiser.
- Each scheme of work, regardless of the focus and concept, includes contextual embellishments to ensure learners have a wealth of cultural capital and an ability to articulate the 'big ideas' encompassed in a text.
- Oracy opportunities are included each term in Years 7-9 culminating in a Spoken Language assessment in Year 10.
- In KS3, Doug Lemov's Reading Reconsidered strategies are utilised within the schemes of learning for the learners to have the ability to read for meaning.
- The Read, Write, Discuss, Edit strategy from Lemov is regularly practiced in the classroom to allow learners opportunities to talk through their work, reflect and edit where necessary.
- Throughout lessons, teachers use cold-calling strategies to assess the learning and to stretch learners understanding.
- Following the English department feedback policy, teachers give regular feedback to learners against key assessment objectives through strategies such as 'demonstrate and connect', WWW and EBI and Green for Growth.
- Assessments in KS3 will take the form of 'define, know, do' which will also be used on a smaller scale regularly through the scheme of work to assess for learning.
- Through regular tracking and monitoring, teachers can identify learners who may need intervention through assessments such as NGRT in KS3 and mock exams in KS4.
- Reading for Pleasure lessons have allowed learners to explore worlds beyond their own and develop cultural capital.
- Learners have partaken in extra-curricular experiences such as Poetry by Heart, Poetry Live, etc.

- ⑩ Learner Voice tells us that learners enjoy English even though they find it challenging. This is evidenced in our books. Learners can confidently articulate what they are learning about and say they enjoy the curriculum.
- ⑩ Learners have told us that they enjoy learning new vocabulary through the Framer models and they take pride in using these in their writing. Learners enjoy learning how to break words down and use them in extended writing.
- ⑩ Learners tell us that they like the way we structure our modelling and build-up to independent writing. They say it makes them more confident.
- ⑩ Our results are showing an improving trend. It is anticipated that 5+ in English this year will be around 43.5%. This would be a significant increase from 2023 results (34%).
- ⑩ We have an aspirational target of 14% 7+ this year. This would be a significant increase from 2023 results of 10% and would be close to national benchmarks. This is due to including a 7+ group in our critical cohort this year and increasing our provision for them. Last year we had 7 learners go on to do A-level English and this year 9 learners have already applied for A-level English post-16.
- ⑩ During October half term 25% of learners from Year 11 took part in a 2 hour voluntary intervention session and this has an impact on November mock results, particularly for Language Paper 2.
- ⑩ We recently took 28 learners from Yr 11 on a residential to improve English Language skills. All learners made progress in their AO5 and AO6 scores during the weekend and were also involved in confidence-building activities. This has positively impacted learner/staff relationships and developed confidence in learners.
- ⑩ We have also taken 38 KS4 learners to watch Macbeth in Birmingham. Learners say that this event was incredibly helpful for their revision. We have subsequently booked another theatre trip next year. The event not only boosted confidence in learners but provided some much needed cultural capital for learners.
- ⑩ 56% of learners are timetabled for P6 intervention on a Wednesday with a stretch and challenge breakfast club on a Thursday morning.
- ⑩ Our Progress 8 score looks likely to be approximately -0.4 which is a good increase from last year. Learners who attend progress well and shadow data suggests Progress 8 for those who have over 70% attendance will be -0.2 .
- ⑩ The SMART curriculum has been adapted to include evidence informed strategy that focuses on reading competency via Doug Lemov's Reading Reconsidered schemes.
- ⑩ Reteach and Green for growth in English was a department priority following first phases of QA. Department leaders have streamlined the feedback policy, created specific assessment proformas and delivered CPD to provide a benchmark of effective and consistent assessment and reteach opportunities. Books now show that this is well-embedded practice.
- ⑩ Reading for Pleasure lessons have been introduced into the KS3 curriculum to further enrich students' reading potential and opportunity. The new library is a key environment in enriching our students' reading experience and provision. Learners particularly enjoy our Reading for Pleasure curriculum and like how it complements our department curriculum.